Detachment Officer Orientation

Understanding the Duties of the Detachment Chaplain
• The Chaplain plays an important role in the Detachment by tending to the needs of members and members families, particularly during periods of distress, illness, and/or death. It is every member’s responsibility to keep the Chaplain informed of situations and issues of need within the Detachment. In addition, the Chaplain is called on to offer invocations and prayer for meetings, initiations, installations, and for ceremonies. The Chaplain may be called on to participate in funeral services, and to make visitation to members/families that are sick, or who have lost a loved one. In addition, the Chaplain may be required to assist in funeral arrangements (to include contacts for USMC honor guards), and/or publicize needs of the sick (to include blood donations, etc.)

• The Chaplain’s job, as a primary representative of the Detachment, is to provide comfort and service to members and families in time of need. This support should go beyond members and family - it should include the entire Marine Corps community (current or former) within the Detachment’s geographic area. This may necessitate reviewing obituaries, or having hospitals make contact when a Marine is there. He/she should be supported by other officers and members during these times of distress. It is part of the adage that “Marines take care of their own.”
• Detachment Chaplain

The Chaplain

• Responsible for the prayer before the meeting and at the closing of the meeting.

• The chaplain must become familiar with the guidelines of the meeting and his part of the meeting guidelines.

• Must ensure that there is a bible present and opens it before the meeting and closes after the meeting.

• Verifies all detach member deaths, and sends a card to the family on behalf of the detachment.

• Must make an effort to attend a members funeral.
Duties

• VISIT SICK MEMBERS OR FAMILIES/CORRESPOND APPROPRIATELY - The Chaplain should make every effort to visit members, or member’s families, who are incapacitated. He/she should make Detachment officers and members aware of the situation, and solicit participation. A card of well wishes should be sent to the individual on behalf of the Detachment. Where appropriate and feasible, a gift should also be considered as a token of concern by the Detachment.
Duties

• ASSIST MEMBERS AND FAMILIES AT TIME OF DEATH - The Chaplain should be immediately advised of any member’s death, or family member’s death. He/she should call on the family and determine how he/she and/or the Detachment can assist. If the family should request participation in the funeral or graveside service, the Chaplain should coordinate functions with the Commandant and the Officer Board. If coordination with a USMC unit is required, the Chaplain should contact the appropriate unit and assist in coordination with the CO or SNCO. The Chaplain should advise the Adjutant and other members of the Detachment for additional help and support.
Duties

- PROVIDE NOTIFICATION TO DEPARTMENT AND NATIONAL ON DECEASED MEMBERS - The “Death Notice” form should be completed by the Chaplain and forwarded to the Department Chaplain, and National, for deceased members of the Detachment. This form should be completed and transmitted immediately upon notification. In addition to other administrative reasons, deceased members are honored with a memorial service at Department, Division, and National meetings.
Duties

• PROVIDE INVOCATIONS AND SERVICES AS REQUIRED - As a part of the opening and closing ceremonies at business meetings, the Ritual provides for the opening and closing of the Bible, and for an invocation and benediction. The Chaplain may use the words of the Ritual, or offer other appropriate prayers at the meeting.

• The Chaplain may also be called on to render a prayer at ceremonies, joint veterans observances, and/or special events. (Such as the Marine Corps Birthday) As indicated above, the Chaplain may also need to prepare and coordinate services for a deceased Marine
